Our Roots

The Story Of Amritsar's Pride

Introduction:-

Sri Amritsar Sahib is a place known all over the world for the beautiful and majestic temple Sri Harmandir Sahib, also known as the Golden Temple. Amritsar is also famous for its variety of food and cuisine. The Amritsari Kulcha is one of them, it is beautiful on the outside and soft on the inside. This is something that has long been known as a specialty of Amritsar. Kulcha, in other parts of North India, is known as a Naan, a type of round bread made with maida (all-purpose flour). However, Amritsari Kulcha is completely different. It is a flatbread that is filled with the stuffing of your choice, such as a spicy boiled potato stuffing, cheese stuffing, cabbage stuffing and onion stuffing. With wet hands, the kulcha is placed in the Tandoor and comes out, attacked with dollops of butter and served to give you the best experience of your life!

THE BIRTH OF KULCHA KULTURE

Why We Started:

For decades, kulchas remained confined to the streets, often served without proper hygiene or sitting arrangements. Families would hesitate to eat together on the roadside — and the real, hot-from-tandoor taste of kulcha was often lost in takeaway foil. That's where our vision was born.

Why not offer the authentic kulcha experience in a comfortable, air-conditioned cafe? Why not bring this iconic dish into the spotlight it deserves?

Kulcha Kulture was born out of a mission — to preserve the original flavor of Sri Amritsar Sahib's kulchas while offering a premium dine-in experience that families and foodies could enjoy alike.
